Spanish Consul asks in name of Spanish Minister that steps be taken to hold any steamer with suspiclous assemblage on board and to detain Taurus until opportunity can be afforded to institute due judicial proceedings

The Treasury Department acted with great promptness, Acting Secretary Curtis telegraphed the Collector of Customs at Philadelphia, apprising him of the reported expedition and instructing him to despatch the cutter Hamilton to Wilmington.

The Collector at Wilmington was informed that the Hamilton had been ordered to report to him and that the naphtha launch at the Delaware Brea water quarantine station could also used if desired. The result was that 6.30 last night Mr. Curtis received t following telegram from Collect Townsend at Wilmington:

"Have captured the steam tug Taur bound for Cuba with arms, twenty me and 27 cases of ammunition."

The Manager of J. S. Rothkopf Son & Co. Claims It Was Furely an Accident.

HIS LAMENESS WORRIED HIM.

The Merchant Was Clutching a Re. volver Tightly in His Hand When Discovered This Morning.

Harry Rothkopf, thirty-five years old, senior member of the firm of Simon of and wholesale dealers in buttons, trimmings and veilings, at 477 Broadway and 50 Mercer street, . hot himself in the mouth with a revolver while in his office at 477 Broadway, this clock this morning. A few minutes before 9 o'clock he called on the cashler, drew some money, and left the store. He returned in about half an hour and went directly to his office, which is separated from the cashler's desk by a thin wooden partition. He sat at his desk and did some writing, called in the cash-ier and gave him papers to sign in Mr Rothkopf's office. The cashier rushed to the room and found the young man prostrate, with a pistol on the floor Blood was streaming from a wound in man, but soon realized he was dead. He had shot himself in the mouth.

The eashier said that when he saw Mr. Rothkopf he did not notice anything unusual in his actions. He talked in his usual tone and did not appear excited. He said it was his belief that he young man drew the money for the surpose of purchasing the revolver. As soon as it was learned that Mr.

Rothkopf had shot himself, one of the terks ran for a physician, and Dr. Holden, who has an office on Broome street, hurried around and found the young man dead. He made an exam-mation of the wound and said death nust have been almost instantaneous The brother-in-law of young Mr. Rothkopf was in the store at the time, but refused to say anything concerning the tragedy. He said it was nobody's busiless. The manager of the store, who refused to give his name, said he was certain the shooting was accidental, as he had no reason to take his life and

The Coroner's office was notified, and through that office the police of the through that office the pulice of the West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street station, heard of the death. A poll-wman was sent around to the house, and a despatch sent by the screwant in command to Police Headquarters stated that he woman died under suspicious circumstances, and that it looked like solicide from polsonting. At the house it was said that there was no reason to suppose that Mrs. Bliss took pulson intentionally, and that, if she had, it was in the chowder, without her knowing it. Coroner O'Meagher will hold an autopsy if he finds it necessary.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

A race between Henry of Navarre, Citford and Nomino is being clamored for. The Concy sland Jockey Club is beseeched to offer a $5.000 curse for these three Borses. Such a race would it he a particle interesting unless the distance a mile and a furiong or a mile and a quarter be would win easily. At a mile Domino and Crif-ford might have a chance, but even then it is outstat if they could defeat the smooth son of Knight of Ellerslie. There is not the rivalry between these horses this year that there was last season and the association would not be justified in offering a big purse, for the public is pretty well satisfied as to the respective merius of the trio.

Next season will probably see a radical change in the stake programmes of the racing associaions. From a hint or two dropped by Mr. Belment at Saratogs more attention is to be paid to the three, four and five year olds and the dis the three, four and five year olds and the distance of races is to be increased. There are several reasons for this change. One is the fact that the ring has finally been disasculated from the clubs. There is no longer any occasion for the associations to favor the ring with short dashes and two-year-old affairs. In formaticars when the ring guished forth a revenue of 15,000 and 16,000 and 16,000 as any throughout the season they demanded something for their money. They wanted dash races, which were hard for the public to pick and were purely a gamble. This is a thing of the past, however.

Too much money has been given away to two-year-olds. In fact, a rating weason is simply repeated trials of two-year-olds with a few other races thrown in to add interest. The result is an enormous crop of worthless horses at the end of a rating ceasen. Of the three loss horses in races thrown in to add interest. The result on commons orby of worthless horses at the of a railing season. Of the three best horse at the of a railing season. Of the three best horse and the third has a throat affection seems a pretty summing up for a control seems a pretty summing up for a control vacuum is so well supported as it is in the 15 States. Two vear-olds are detwen and raced early Spring until late Pall, and are simply out at the end of their season.

How many crack two year-olds have succeeded in their three and four years old careers? Next eason there should be good performers in the hree-year-old division simply because there are many good ones, and the racing has been lim-ted. Two-year-old stakes ought to be cut down in the money divided into the other classes, which furnish by far the most interesting sport of the public.

Riley Grannen won hearly 140,000 at Sheeps-tead Bay on Thursday. People like to see Riley-tin, because he is a good, game better and never queats over his beass. He needs his earnings, or the early part of the season saw him badly sent. Cot. Chinn has been engaged to start
